2019 course is the same as last year.

There may be muddy spots and standing water, especially in the upper orchard. Runners are encouraged to bring extra shoes and socks to change into after their race.