

High School Course

The 5K course is made up of two large loops and a final spur to the finish line on the track. From the start, turn right and go around the cornfield. Follow the course back to the starting line, where you will repeat the same loop a second time. After you reach the start area for the second time, you will follow the fence along the starting line and run the spur to the finish line on the track.