The 2022 Legends

Bill Rodgers - The letters B and R have appeared together in various places with numerous meanings over the years, from chemistry's Periodic Table to HTML code to real estate listings.

A little over 40 years ago, BR was the driving force in American long-distance running, reinforced by the letters' placement on all things connected to the world's foremost marathoner of the day, Bill Rodgers.

Born in Hartford, Connecticut, Bill was a state cross country champion in high school in 1965 and ran track and cross country in college. It wasn't until he returned to competitive running several years later with a new group called the Greater Boston Track Club that history soon would be made.

Bill won both the Boston Marathon and the New York City Marathon four times each between 1975 and 1980, twice breaking the American record at Boston with a time of 2:09:55 in 1975 and a 2:09:27 in 1979. In 1977, he won Japan's Fukuoka Marathon, making him the only runner ever to hold the championship of all three major marathons at the same time.

He also made the 1976 U.S. Olympic team and raced the marathon at the Montreal Olympics, finishing 40th. He did not participate in the Olympics in 1980 due to the U.S. boycott over the invasion of Afghanistan by the former Soviet Union.

Right before he took the marathon world by storm, Bill returned to his running roots in cross country. In March 1975, he won the bronze medal at the World Cross Country Championships in Morocco, equaling Tracy Smith's 1966 bronze in the International Cross Country Championships as the highest an American had ever finished in international cross country competition. Based on his efforts in 1975, Bill finished second in voting for the Sullivan Award, which is given annually to the nation's top amateur athlete.

His most remarkable – and successful – year on the roads came in 1978 when he won 27 of the 30 races he entered, including the Pepsi 10,000-meter nationals (with a then world road 10K best), the Falmouth Road Race, and the Boston & New York marathons.

Bill is the former world record holder for 25,000 meters on the track and still holds the American track records for 15,000, 20,000, 25,000 and 30,000 meters and 1 hour. Track & Field News ranked him No. 1 in the world in the marathon in 1975, 1977 and 1979. Twenty-eight of the 59 marathons Bill ran were under 2:15. In all, he won 22 marathons in his career.

In 1998, Bill was inducted in the first class of the National Distance Running Hall of Fame in Utica, New York. He was inducted in 1999 to the National Track & Field Hall of Fame in Indianapolis.

Susan Nash Sugar - A member of the OHSAA's Circle of Champions, Susan Nash Sugar of Zanesville Rosecrans was one of the Buckeye state's most dominant track and cross country standouts of the early 1980s. Susan won gold in 11 individual or relay events at the state track meet, topping the Class A 400-meter dash field all four years and claiming the 800 title in her final three seasons. The former Bishop standout also was a state champion in the 100 dash as a junior and had legs on title-winning 4x400 (twice) and 4x800 (once) relays. At the conclusion of her track career, she owned the state meet records in the 400 and 800 and also was on the record-setting 4x400 and 4x800 relay teams. Susan also won two Class A individual titles in the team races in cross country and led Rosecrans to the 1983 championship, along with being a two-time All-Ohio selection in basketball. As a collegian, she was an All-American at the University of Florida and ran on American and world record-setting relay teams for the Gators.
