

This part of the course is retraced. On the way to mile 1 runners will run out towards the road and back through the small wood section. On the way back, runners will skip the woods