

The 26th Annual Oscar Grant - Maplewood Cross Country Invitational

To honor Oscar Grant, we have renamed the Maplewood Cross Country Invitational “The Oscar Grant Maplewood Invitational”. Oscar started the track and cross country programs at Maplewood High School in 1959 when the Greene, Mecca and Johnston Schools consolidated to form Maplewood High School. He coached the sports with much success from 1959 through his retirement in 1986. He continued his work in the sport as an official to the present day. Oscar is a veteran of World War II. He has brought much recognition to Maplewood Schools and Maplewood Athletes and is more than deserving of the meet being named in his honor. Mr. Grant passed away shortly after the 2014 meet on September 10th, 2014. He was less than two months from his 90th birthday.
