Scoring

- It is the responsibility of the players to turn in a legible scorecard signed by the player AND a verbal agreement from the group.
- It is the responsibility of the player to provide an accurate score for each hole. BE SURE to tell the player to double check his scores.
- All players should remain in scoring area until all cards are turned in.
- Ask each player if he had any situation that needs to be brought to the attention of the committee, like playing two balls (rule 20.1c).
- Be sure to resolve any other questions
- It is NOT the responsibility of the player to ADD his scores
- It is the responsibility of the score keeper (YOURS!) to add all hole by hole scores and enter a total for the round. Math is the committees responsibility not the players.
- Confirm your total with his
- Once the player leaves the scoring area, the card is officially turned in. It must be signed. Any errors like a score for a hole that is too high will stand, any score for a hole too low the player is disqualified!
