

SPECTATOR GUIDELINES

Thanks for Supporting our Next Generation of Golfer!

To Help Ensure a Smooth Round for Everyone we require that Spectators.

- Stay on/or around cart paths “if available” and please stay a reasonable distance from the players (at least 25 yards).
- Spectators MAY NOT walk up to the green to watch and please avoid being in field of vision when contestants are playing.
- Cell phones must be either turned off or their ringers turned to the silent mode. Be careful with the vibration mode as well
- Spectators MAY NOT carry participant’s umbrella, apparel, equipment or food and water. That is the Coaches Responsibility
- Spectators MAY SEARCH for player’s golf ball but not identify the ball for the contestant (Just point its location out)
- Spectators SHALL NOT interfere in the play of a participant. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - Asking a player what their score was.
 - Giving rulings or advice to any player.
 - Providing yardage
 - Verbal communication with the participant
 - Hand signals to the participant
 - Providing participants with written material
 - Spectators MAY politely applaud and offer encouragement.

Violations may result in penalties or disqualifications of contestants.
