- Hospitality Room & Meeting Room: We will have an area for coaches and officials to meet. Parents, athletes, and spectators are not permitted in the school's main hallway. Crock pots are not permitted.
- Locker Rooms: The locker rooms, athletic training room, and athletic hall areas are for team personnel only.
- Tournament: This is a double-elimination bracketed tournament. No extras are allowed.
- Awards: The top finishers will be recognized in the JHS gym once all matches have concluded.

Weigh-ins & Eligible Wrestlers:

- Weigh-ins will take place by school, in order of arrival Saturday morning. Weigh-ins run from 8:00am-9:00am.
- Extras are not permitted in the tournament.
- Wrestlers must be in good standing and eligible to wrestle as determined by the OHSAA and LCL.
- Wrestlers must be entered in a weight class in writing or by electronic form (Baum's Page) as determined by the tournament director by the Thursday before competition. Name changes may be made on the day of competition, but new wrestlers may not be added to a weight class.
- If a wrestler steps on a scale he or she will be considered to be entered into the tournament. If the entered wrestler is not able to wrestle after stepping on the scale the entry will become a forfeit in the tournament. If the wrestler is disqualified before stepping on the scale, the entry will become a Bye in the tournament.
- Wrestlers may not be moved before weigh-in. Coaches must report any desired changes to the tournament director upon arrival to the tournament. Wrestlers who step on the scale at weigh-in are considered to be entered into the tournament in the weight reported. If the wrestler does not make weight, they become a forfeit, are disqualified from the tournament, and may NOT move to another weight class.
- Non-Scoring Wrestlers will not be used in the Licking County Championships.
