Lineups must be submitted on Baumspace no later than 10pm on Thursday January 27th.

Extras will be taken to fill weights up to 16 wrestlers in a weight class. I will let you know which extras get in as soon as I am able to enter lineups. The sooner you get lineups in, the sooner I will be able to get pools drawn up and know which extras are in. You do not have to wait until Thursday to turn them in.

Please include all records and relevant seeding information as there will be no seeding meeting. I will enter wrestlers based on the information you give me. If you do not enter records, I will email you back and ask for them...save us all time and send in all important seeding information. Current record and OAC state placement are the only criteria used.

The team list is provided above so that you can let me know of any head-to-head matchups that will help in seeding. If you do not include the information, it will not be considered as I do not know anything about your kids. Also include OAC state placement information.

I will do my best to seed the kids appropriately based on the information given. But ultimately, like I told my high school kids, you have to beat the best kids to win the event no matter what.

Online entry instructions follow this page.
